

From outreach to readiness: building Africa's presence in DOAJ

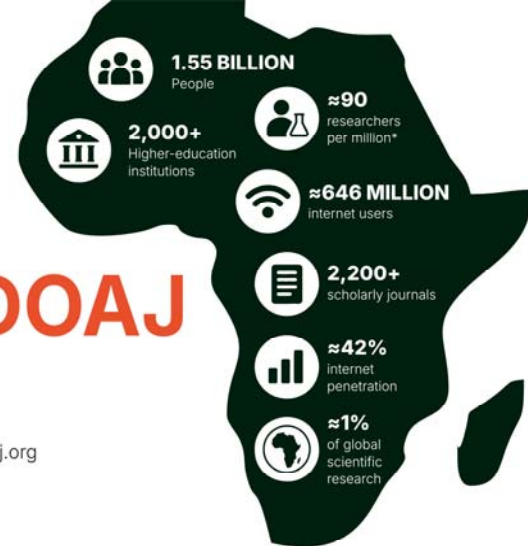

Ina Smith,

Community Manager and Ambassador Southern Africa, DOAJ - ina@doaj.org

Dominic Mitchell, Deputy Director, DOAJ

with contributions from Katrine Sundsbø, Head of Community and Communications, DOAJ

Africa's growing presence in DOAJ is the result of deliberate, sustained effort and strong partnerships. We have shifted from simply creating awareness about DOAJ to targeted support for journals before they apply.

832

Journals indexed in DOAJ from Africa

The number of African journals has nearly tripled since 2022

Assessment and invitation

Identify
journals

Audit and pre-assessment

Contact with journal

Journal
assesses feedback

Journal
applies when ready

Support and training offered through...

Google Classroom

Weekly self-guided course material, videos, and interaction with trainers.

Online webinars

Live webinars with detailed info on DOAJ criteria and application process.

Pre-assessment

Unofficial AI pre-assessment model to identify gaps in journals and provide targeted advice.

Working with partners and networks to support African OA journals

Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ)
This poster is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution License (CC BY 4.0 International)

DOAJ is run and managed by the DOAJ Foundation, a non-profit community-governed Danish foundation based in Denmark and with its registered office in Roskilde, Denmark.

